Voters Have Many Choices When Casting Their Ballot:

Voters in Georgia now have many choices when casting their ballot. Options include Early Voting in person in the Board of Elections Office, Voting by Mail, voting during Advance Voting Week, and Election Day voting at your assigned polling location. Please note that no type of voting is permissible on the Monday preceding the date set for the election.

Early Voting will begin Monday, May 11, 2009 and will run through Friday, June 12, 2009 in the Board of Elections Office located at 530 Greene Street, Room 104, Augusta, Georgia. All voters voting during the Early Voting period must provide one of the six acceptable forms of photo identification and do not have to provide a reason for voting early. The hours for Early Voting will be from 8:30 AM until 5:00 PM daily during the period of time set for Early Voting.

Advance Voting will begin on Monday, June 8, 2009 through Friday, June 12, 2009. All voters voting during the Advance Voting period must provide one of the six acceptable forms of photo identification and do not have to provide a reason for voting. The locations that will be open for voting during Advance Voting Week include the Board of Elections Main Office located at 530 Greene Street, Room 104, the Henry Brigham Recreation Center located at 2463 Golden Camp Road, and the Warren Road Recreation Center located at 300 Warren Road. The hours for Advance Voting will be from 8:30 AM until 6:00 PM daily during the period of time set for Advance Voting.

Voting by Mail will begin Monday, May 11, 2009 and will end on Friday, June 12, 2009. All persons desiring to vote by mail must first submit a written request to the Board of Elections Office either by mail or fax. The request must contain the voter's name and address as registered, date of birth, the date of the election for which the ballot is being requested (June 16, 2009 Special Election) and must be signed. Voters voting by mail do not have to provide a reason for voting by mail and do not have to have to produce one of the six acceptable forms of identification in order to vote. Our mailing address is: Board of Elections, 530 Greene Street, Room 104, Augusta, Georgia, 30901 and our fax number is (706) 821-2814.

Election Day Voting will be available on Tuesday, June 16, 2009 at each of the 52 polling locations in Augusta-Richmond County. The hours for voting are from 7:00 AM until 7:00 PM. Voters must report to their assigned polling location on Election Day to cast their ballot, and must provide one of the six acceptable forms of photo identification.
